

I am concerned about where I get my internet service. I value the service that I get from a local internet provider and I do not want to lose those services. The attention and service are excellent from a local group of people and I do not want to be a number to a large national or international provider that cannot and will not serve my needs, answer my questions, and help with my problems. Please do not stop regulating broadband service.